

Year 3 Comprehension 13: The Enchanted Forest

Once upon a time, in a small village, there lived a curious and adventurous girl named Jasmine. Jasmine loved exploring new places and was always excited to learn new things. One sunny day, she decided to venture into the enchanted forest that bordered her village.

As Jasmine stepped into the forest, she felt a sense of magic surrounding her. The tall trees seemed to whisper secrets, and colourful flowers bloomed everywhere. It was like stepping into a world of dreams.

As she walked deeper into the forest, Jasmine heard a rustling sound behind a bush. She cautiously approached it, and to her surprise, a magnificent tiger emerged from the bushes. The tiger had sparkling emerald eyes and a gentle smile on its face.

"Hello," said Jasmine, her voice filled with excitement. "What's your name?"

The tiger, who could understand human language, responded kindly, "My name is Raj. I am the guardian of this enchanted forest. Welcome, Jasmine!"

Jasmine's eyes widened with delight. She couldn't believe that she had found a talking tiger as her friend. From that day onwards, Jasmine and Raj became inseparable companions.

They spent their days exploring the wonders of the enchanted forest. Jasmine would learn about the different plants and animals, and Raj would share stories about the forest's history. They discovered hidden waterfalls, secret meadows, and encountered many magical creatures like fairies and talking birds.

One day, as they were walking near a magical pond, they saw a group of animals huddled together, looking worried. Jasmine and Raj hurried over to see what was happening.

The animals explained that a terrible storm was approaching, and they were scared of being swept away by the strong winds. Jasmine, being a brave and compassionate girl, had an idea.

"Let's build a shelter for them!" she exclaimed. Together, Jasmine and Raj gathered branches, leaves, and vines to construct a sturdy shelter near the pond. The animals were relieved and thanked Jasmine for her kindness.

The storm arrived, and the wind howled fiercely. Jasmine and Raj stayed by the animals' side, comforting and protecting them. They sang songs and told stories to keep everyone calm.

When the storm finally passed, the forest was left in disarray. But Jasmine and Raj had made a difference by helping their friends.

Word of their bravery and kindness spread throughout the enchanted forest, and soon, other animals and creatures sought Jasmine's help. She became known as the Forest Protector, and Raj was by her side, offering guidance and support.

Jasmine and Raj continued their adventures, helping those in need and discovering more magical wonders. The enchanted forest thrived under their watchful eyes, and the bond between the girl and the tiger grew stronger with each passing day.

And so, Jasmine and Raj lived happily ever after, knowing that their friendship and the love they shared made the enchanted forest a place of wonder and harmony for all its inhabitants.
