

Year 2 Comprehension 1: The Lost Dragon Egg

Once upon a time in the Enchanted Forest, a group of adventurous friends named Lily, Max, and Emma were playing near a sparkling river.

As they explored, they stumbled upon a strange, glowing object half-buried in the soft earth.

Excitedly, they uncovered it, and to their astonishment, it was a shimmering, blue dragon egg!

Lily, the brave leader of the group, gently cradled the egg in her arms. "Wow, this is incredible!" she exclaimed. "We must take care of it, but we need to find out where it belongs".

Determined to return it to Dragon Mountain, they sought the help of Mr. Wisebeard, the wizard who knew everything about the Enchanted Forest and Dragons. After entering into his cottage, he granted them the Forest Amulet to aid them in their quest.

"The amulet", Mr Wisebeard said, "will glow brighter as you near the mountain!"

Armed with its power, they faced mischievous fairies, a tricky riddle, and a grumpy troll on their journey. But with teamwork and determination, they overcame each obstacle

At last, they reached Dragon Mountain. They watched in awe as the egg glowed even brighter, and cracks appeared on its surface. "It's hatching!" exclaimed Lily. A tiny, adorable dragon emerged from the egg, stretching its little wings. It nuzzled against Lily, recognizing her as its protector and friend.

As they returned to the Enchanted Forest, the dragon followed them, now their loyal companion. With Mr. Wisebeard's guidance, they learned to care for the baby dragon, who was full of magic and joy.

And so, a bond was formed between the children and the dragon, reminding them all that even the most magical friendships could start with a simple discovery in the heart of the Enchanted Forest
