

Year 7 Poetry 5: The River's Journey

Read the following poem and answer the questions below:

The River's Journey

Through valleys deep and mountains high,
The river flows, a constant sigh,
Its waters clear beneath the sky,
A silent traveler passing by.

It carves a path through earth and stone,
A journey long, a tale unknown,
In every ripple, secrets shown,
A story written, yet alone.

The river sings a gentle tune,
Under the watchful eye of the moon,
Its melody, a soft monsoon,
A song of night, of day, of noon.

The trees that line its winding course,
Bend to greet its gentle force,
A life sustained, its endless source,
A moving heart with no remorse.

It reaches seas, a distant shore,
Yet longs to wander evermore,
A restless soul, forevermore,
The river's journey, to explore.
