

Year 6 Comprehension 14: Sophie's Magical Dream

Once upon a time, there was a little girl named Sophie. Sophie was a cheerful and imaginative child who loved to dream big. Every night, she would close her eyes and imagine wonderful places and exciting adventures. One night, as Sophie drifted off to sleep, she had the most amazing dream of all.

In her dream, Sophie found herself standing in front of a huge, colorful castle. The castle was tall and sparkling, with turrets that reached high into the sky. It was like something out of a fairy tale. Sophie felt her heart race with excitement as she realized she was at Disneyland!

She looked around and saw that everything was even more magical than she had ever imagined. The sky was a brilliant shade of blue, and the air was filled with the sweet sound of laughter and joyful music. Sophie could see Mickey Mouse, Minnie Mouse, and all her favorite Disney characters walking around and waving at the visitors.

Sophie's eyes widened as she saw Mickey Mouse waving at her. He had his famous red shorts, big yellow shoes, and a huge smile. Sophie waved back and ran towards him. Mickey greeted her with a warm hug and asked, "Hi there, Sophie! Would you like to join me on a magical adventure today?"

Sophie's face lit up with joy. "Yes, please!" she said excitedly.

Mickey took her hand and led her through the castle gates. They walked down a path lined with flowers and colorful banners. The path led them to a beautiful carousel with brightly painted horses. Mickey and Sophie hopped onto one of the horses, and as the carousel began to spin, Sophie felt like she was flying through a world of wonder.

Next, Mickey and Sophie visited the enchanted forest where they saw fairy lights twinkling among the trees. They met Tinker Bell, who fluttered around them, sprinkling magical fairy dust. "Welcome to the enchanted forest!" Tinker Bell said. "Do you want to make a wish?"

Sophie thought for a moment and then said, "I wish for a day full of fun and laughter!"

Tinker Bell nodded and waved her wand, making sparkles dance in the air. "Your wish is granted!" she said with a giggle.

As they continued their adventure, Sophie and Mickey came to a giant, colorful candy land. The trees were made of candy canes, and the flowers were like lollipops. Sophie picked a gummy bear from a candy tree and shared it with Mickey. They both laughed as they munched on the sweet treat.

After enjoying the candy land, Mickey took Sophie to a magical boat ride. The boat glided smoothly across a sparkling lake, and Sophie saw beautiful mermaids swimming underwater. They sang lovely songs, and the water shimmered with rainbow colors.

The boat ride ended at a stunning fireworks show. The sky lit up with bright, colorful explosions of light. Sophie and Mickey sat together, watching the fireworks with wide eyes. It felt like the night sky was filled with stars just for them.

As the fireworks show came to an end, Mickey said, "Sophie, it's almost time for your dream to end. But remember, every dream can be as magical as you make it."

Sophie gave Mickey a big hug. "Thank you for the most wonderful day ever!" she said.

Mickey smiled and waved goodbye as Sophie began to feel sleepy. She found herself drifting away from Disneyland, back to her cozy bed.

When Sophie woke up the next morning, she felt happy and full of joy. She remembered every detail of her magical dream and couldn't wait to tell her friends about it. She knew that even though Disneyland was far away, the magic of her dream would always be with her.

From that day on, whenever Sophie closed her eyes at night, she imagined herself back in Disneyland, going on new adventures and meeting new friends. And she knew that with a little bit of imagination and a lot of dreams, anything was possible.

And so, Sophie's dreams were always filled with magic, reminding her that the most wonderful adventures are just a dream away.
